Causey Coat of Arms

Blazon (Shield) description (Hyngham*). Ar. a griffin segreant sa.

Silver or white (argent) stands for peace and sincerity.

Griffin (head, wings, and talons of an eagle with the body of a lion). stands for valour and death-defying bravery and vigilance. Segreant Said of the dragon or griffin erect with wings elevated and addorsed, in the position of the lion when borne rampant.

Helmet . The helmets of esquires and private gentlemen were to be placed in profile, with the visor or beaver closed; to be of steel, but enriched with gold. These are drawn after various patterns however, the only point being that the visor should be closed, whence they are termed close helmets. The helmet depicted in the Causey Coat of Arms appears radiant probably signifying the “Helmet of Salvation”.

Motto . CAUSEY family motto: IN DEO SPES (In God is hope)

Place of Registry. “Causey (Hyngham)”. Ar. a griffin segreant sa. Hyngham, (Hingham), South Norfolk District, Norfolk, England, United Kingdom referencing the geographic location of the origin of the Causey Coat of Arms.
